Academic Success Center: Over 90% of students who received tutoring reported being satisfied with Tutoring Services and expected improvement in their course grade. Over 80% indicated that they are more satisfied with their college experience after receiving tutoring.

Communications: Successful launch of a new outreach/marketing campaign and creation of the inaugural Dean of Students Office Student Ambassadors.

Margaret Sloss Women’s Center: Received a $4,700 Campus Action Project grant from the American Association of University Women (AAUW). Project featured as one of “11 Projects That Will Empower College Women from D.C. to Brazil” by the AAUW.

Multicultural Student Affairs: Staff provided 37 diversity-related education presentations on-campus to 1,334 people, an increase of 15% in the number of presentations and 15% increase in the number of informal student contacts through presentations from FY17.

National Student Exchange: National Student Exchange students yield an 88.7% six-year graduation rate, nearly 20% above the university average.

Parent and Family Programs: Relatively Speaking, the electronic monthly newsletter, continues to be the primary form of communication with family members. Over 15,000 subscribers receive this monthly newsletter.

Student Assistance: This year the Office of Student Assistance engaged with over 2,500 individual students.

Student Conduct: Student Conduct has increased efforts toward collaborative interactions, outreach, and information referrals with Ames PD, the City of Ames, off-campus community organizations, and neighborhood associations.

Student Legal Services: Nearly 1,000 students utilized SLS services during the 2017-2018 academic year.

Writing and Media Center: The WMC launched a campus-wide, multimodal advertising initiative, which resulted in a 25% increase in consultations and an 18% increase in unique student visitors.

International Students and Scholars Office: The International Students and Scholars Office met with international students in 4,828 scheduled, telephone, or walk-in advising appointments; welcomed over 400 visiting international scholars to campus; and provided immigration support for 25 new faculty and staff.

Sorority and Fraternity Engagement: Formerly known as Greek Affairs, the updated office name better aligns with the values-based work of the staff and community. Sorority and Fraternity Engagement also strengthened focus on risk prevention by enhancing procedures and collaborating with local and national organizations to create action plans for positive change within the community.

Center for LGBTQIA+ Student Success: The first student cohort of Thrive, a program for emerging LGBTQIA+ leaders at Iowa State, participated in six workshop sessions, attended the Midwest Bisexual Lesbian Gay Transgender Ally College Conference, and presented at the 2018 Iowa State Transforming Gender and Society Conference.
The Writing and Media Center conducted about 6,500 consultations.

Student Accessibility Services administered more than 6,000 exams in the Hixson-Lied Student Success Center.

The Sorority and Fraternity Community completed more than 70,000 hours of community service and raised more than $750,000.

The Center for LGBTQIA+ Student Success Speakers Bureau panels reach over 2,000 students across campus!

Nearly 50% of the undergraduate population finds support at the Academic Success Center.

The Margaret Sloss Women’s Center welcomed 96 first-time visitors during the Spring 2018 semester!

WHO TO FOLLOW

@CyDeanHurte
@IowaStateDSO
www.dso.iastate.edu